Tobolski Statement on Tony Peraica's Arrest

MCCOOK--Tony Peraica was arrested last night for destruction of private property and trespassing. After being pulled over in Stickney for tearing down opponent Jeff Tobolski's campaign signs a call went out to local police for suspicious behavior of a white chevy mini van. McCook police caught Tony Peraica red handed on an elderly woman's private property with a broken Jeff Tobolski campaign sign.

"I was shocked when I heard the news late last night. This clearly is the erratic behavior of a desperate man. This just goes to show you the length that Tony Peraica will go to steal an election. The voters of the 16th District have to see that he is unfit to serve in any public office."

- Jeff Tobolski, Cook County Commissioner Candidate, 16th District
